

GFE and GCYF Web Seminar
Federal Recovery Resources and Out-of-School Time: What Grantmakers Should Know

July 9, 2009 ■ 1:00-2:15 pm ET/10:00-11:15 am PT

---

FINAL AGENDA

Web Seminar presented jointly by
Grantmakers for Education Out-of-School Time Funders Network &
Grantmakers for Children, Youth & Families

Goals of web seminar for participants:

- Understand the framework of American Recovery and Reinvestment Act (ARRA) programs within the US Department of Education (ED)
- Know the range of opportunities for using ED ARRA funds to support out-of-school time (OST) and expanded learning programs
- Recognize opportunities for ARRA funds to support OST beyond ED
- Contribute and receive ideas for how they can help facilitate strategic partnerships among OST programs, school districts, and others to access ARRA funds

Agenda

I. Welcome

- JOHN BRANAM, director of programs, Grantmakers for Education
- RENEE CARL, senior program manager, policy initiatives, Grantmakers for Children, Youth & Families
- KATHLEEN TRAPHAGEN, coordinator, GFE Out-of-School Time Funders Network

II. ARRA Overview and Q&A

- AN-ME CHUNG, program officer, Charles Stewart Mott Foundation
- JENNIFER RINEHART, vice president, research & policy, Afterschool Alliance

III. Effective Roles for Grantmakers

- AN-ME CHUNG, program officer, Charles Stewart Mott Foundation
- MARGO QUIRICONI, director of research and policy – education, Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation

IV. Wrap Up

- KATHLEEN TRAPHAGEN, coordinator, GFE Out-of-School Time Funders Network
- RENEE CARL, senior program manager, policy initiatives, Grantmakers for Children, Youth & Families